

Grace

7 Days of Prayer Leading into the New Year

The New Year always causes us to reflect on the previous year and think about how we want to live the next. Whether or not you make any resolutions, prayer is an essential ingredient in doing anything to the glory of God. Commit yourself to praying this next week for the year to come, and expect God to prepare you for and use you in 2011.

– Pastor Chris

December 26: Read Ephesians 1:16-19 and pray for greater understanding of your position in Christ.

December 27: Read Ephesians 6:18-20 and pray for boldness in sharing the gospel.

December 28: Read Philippians 1:9 and pray that God would make you a more loving person.

December 29: Read 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17 and pray that God would work and speak through you.

December 30: Read Romans 15:13 and pray for greater joy and peace in your faith.

December 31: Read Colossians 4:12 and pray for a more mature faith, fully trusting in God's will for you.

January 1: Read Colossians 1:9-12 and pray that each of these things would be more evident in your your life this year!