Volunteers Needed!

We're grateful for the many people who serve in our church in many ways! We are always in need of more volunteers. Talk to Pastor Chris about how to get plugged in. Here are just a few areas of service in our church:

Greeters: Welcome people with a smile and a handshake as they enter. Assure that every guest begins with a good impression!

Media: Run the audio/visual technology we use during our worship service. If you're good with computers, this is for you!

Music: Whether in the band, or as special music, use your musical ability to praise God!

Nursery: Whether during Sunday School or during the sermon, teach the youngest of our church to love Jesus through Scripture, songs, and games.

Children's Church Helper: Assist the leader (Leroy) in providing age-appropriate teaching and games for children during the sermon. NEW OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE!

Sermon Notes:

Question of the Week: What do you consider to be absolutely necessary for you to do in life? Are you doing it?

A few responses from last week's Question of the Week: Do you see God as distant and impersonal, or as up close and personal?

"Very personal every second of every day. Wherever I am I know He is there with me through it all."

"I feel both sometimes but when the feeling is distant I know it's me, not him because he is always right there."
